From the GENTLEMAN'S MAGAZINE for June, 1753.

The following Paper which is written by a Gentleman who ſigns J. S. did not come to our hands time enough to be inſerted in our Magazine of laſt month. It has been ſince publiſhed in the London papers, and from thence copied into thoſe publiſhed in other parts of the kingdom; but we think there is ſtill ſufficient reaſon to take it into our collection, as it is an excellent compendium of the ſtatute, and an irrefragable anſwer to all that has been or can be ſaid againſt it.

The BILL, permitting the Jews to be Naturalized by Parliament, having been miſrepreſented in the London Gazetteer, of Friday the 18*th of* May; and probably having never been read either by the Author of that Paper, or by ſeveral others who have ſince ſigned a Petition, which that paper was calculated to ſupport: To remove thoſe falſe Impreſſions, the following ſhort, but true, State of Facts, is ſubmitted to the Conſideration of the Public.

IN 1610, an act of parliament paſſed, requiring perſons, who ſhould apply to be naturalized, to take the Sacrament, and the Oaths of Allegiance and Supremacy ---- The objects of this law, at the time it was made, were the Roman Catholics --- there were no Jews at that time in England.

All that is intended by the preſent bill, is a partial repeal of this law, with reſpect to the Jews; and, for that purpoſe, the bill enacts, that the parliament may, if they think proper, naturalize Jews, without their taking the ſacrament.

This proviſion goes only to Jews born abroad; all Jews born here are to every intent, natural born ſubjects; and, as ſuch, without the aid of this bill, have, at this time, as they had five hundred years ago, a right by law to purchaſe real eſtates, to them and their heirs, in like manner as any other ſubject ---This will not be diſputed ---The public records from King Henry II. prove it beyond a doubt.

As therefore the bill gives to the Jew, to be naturalized, no new or greater privileges than what every Jew born in England, at preſent, by law enjoys, it ſeems hard to aſſign a good reaſon, why the parliament may not be ſafely intruſted with the power of naturalizing foreign Jews, if they ſhall think proper.

This is all the bill does in favour of the Jews; but it goes farther, and, per contra, abridges the natural right of every Jew born here; for the bill very prudently declares all Jews, for the future, incapable of purchaſing, or inheriting any advowſons, or rights of patronage, or preſentation to any benefice, prebend or other eccleſiaſtical living or promotion, ſchool, hoſpital, or donative.

What is propoſed by the former part of the bill, is not new; it being leſs than what has been done by the legiſlature on ſeveral former occaſions, without any clamour made againſt it, or any bad effects attending it.

In 1740, an act paſſed, in conſequence whereof ſeveral hundred Jews, who have reſided ſeven years in the American colonies, or who ſerved as mariners, during the war, two years in Britiſh ſhips, are become natural born ſubjects of Great-Britain, without taking the ſacrament.

It is the ſpirit and intention, and, I make no doubt it will be the certain conſequence and effects, of the preſent bill, to encourage rich Jews, who live in foreign countries, to remove, with their ſubſtance, and ſettle here, inſtead of France or Holland.

In thus naturalizing foreign Jews, we do what the prudence of the French nation hath done for more than two centuries; with this only difference, that the French extend it to all that come, to the poor equally with the rich, without diſtinction; whereas the object of the preſent bill is confined to perſons of ſubſtance and property only.

Henry II. of France, in 1550, by his letters patents, declared the Jews capable to purchaſe, inherit, and enjoy, real eſtates in France, comme de vrais regnicoles, et ſujets de Roi. [as true inhabitants of the realm, and ſubjects of the king.] Henry III. in 1574, Louis XIV, in 1656, and Louis XV. in 1723, and 1728, renewed and confirmed this privilege, ſans que les Juifs ſoient tenus de prendre aucunes Lettres de Naturalite. [without which the Jews are reſtrained from taking letters of naturalization.

The ſhare foreigners, and, among them, the Jews, have in the public debt of this kingdom, is very conſiderable; the dividends whereof are either annually remitted to foreigners abroad, who contribute nothing to the expence of this government, or are laid out in increaſing their mortgage upon us----Good policy, therefore, directs us to put every honeſt and prudent expedient in practice, that may induce or allure the foreign proprietors of this large debt to follow their property, and expend the dividends and income of it here.

There are other conſiderations, that make the naturalization of Jews preferable to that of moſt other foreigners---Such as, their ſupporting their own poor; their having no country of their own to retire to, after acquiring eſtates here, or in favour of which they might be induced to carry on their trade under the umbrage of naturalization.

Under theſe circumſtances, when a ſmall part only of the traders of this great metropolis (and many of them, probably, through miſtake, impoſition, or miſrepreſentation) have been prevailed on to ſign a petition to parliament, againſt the bill in queſtion, it muſt be deciſive as to the point --- What is the Opinion and judgment of merchants and traders in general concerning the utility of the bill---- when it ſhall appear, that the petitions, in favour of the bill are ſigned by the greateſt number of the moſt eminent and extenſive merchants, traders and manufacturers, that hath been known on any former occaſion; and the reaſons they give why they hope the bill may paſs, are, " That it will encourage perſons of wealth and ſubſtance to remove, with their effects, from foreign parts into this kingdom; the greateſt part of which, agreeable to the experience of former times, will be employed by them in foreign trade and commerce, in increaſing the ſhipping, and encouraging the exportation of the woollen and other manufactures of this kingdom; of which the Jews have, for many years, exported great quantities."

J. S.

Extract of a Letter from a M------ of P------ on the foregoing Subject.

"" The bill has, indeed, with great impropriety, whether by accident or deſign, been called a naturalization bill, and this word is the foundation of all the clamour that it has produced. It is only intended to render foreign Jews capable of naturalization, principally with a view to excuſe them from payment of the aliens duty at the cuſtoms, and by ſuch encouragement to invite over ſome very great traders from foreign parts; for tho' they will have a right after naturalization to purchaſe lands of inheritance as well as Jews born here, yet, by this act they are even then diſabled from ſitting in either houſe of parliament, and from holding any office or place of truſt civil or military."

---Such is the act which has been repreſented as tending to ſubvert our liberty and religion as Engliſhmen and Chriſtians; and, with yet greater abſurdity, as fruſtrating the deſigns of providence, and falſifying the predictions of eternal truth.

---The extreme ignorance and folly which have appeared in ſome publick tranſactions upon this occaſion, will for ever ſtigmatize the preſent age of moral philoſophy, in which every one boaſts to detect the frauds of ſuperſtition, and to determine all queſtions by right reaſon.

---If events which have been predicted do not happen, the prophet was an impoſtor; ſo that if the prophecies concerning the Jews are not fulfilled, Chriſtianity is not true; and if Chriſtianity is true, theſe prophecies cannot but be fulfilled. So obvious are truths which appear to have been utterly unknown to the literati, who have lately obliged the world with theological and political remarks; who have preached ſermons, written books, talked in coffee-houſes, and made intereſt for members of parliament.

Happi-

Happineſs of this our Country, being the chief Points we have in View, we ſhall thankfully receive from your Excellency, any Thoughts that you will pleaſe to communicate to us, relative to thoſe important Purpoſes.

P. HAMMOND, Speaker.

The Governor's ANSWER.

Gentlemen of the Lower Houſe of Aſſembly,

YOUR kind Addreſs, and the obliging Manner in which you expreſs yourſelves, on my Appointment to, and Arrival in, this Government, as well as on your being aſſembled at this Seaſon, give me great Pleaſure.

From the Knowledge I have of his Lordſhip, I am confident, he has nothing more at Heart, than the Well-Being of his Tenants, and that it will be his Study to maintain their juſt Rights, equally with his own.

I flatter myſelf with Hopes, of ſatisfying you, that my Expreſſions of Regard towards the People of this Province, are ſincere: And I rejoice to ſee a Diſpoſition in you to preſerve that Harmony which you are well aſſured it is your Intereſt as well as Duty, to eſtabliſh.

I thank you for your Promiſes to contribute all in your Power to render my Adminiſtration happy and agreeable; and I receive the greateſt Satisfaction from your Readineſs and Chearfulneſs to receive and take under Conſideration, whatever the Duty of my Station may require me at any Time to recommend.

HORATIO SHARPE.

St. John's in Antigua, Auguſt 31.

We have Advice, that a Schooner from this Port, James Knott Commander, who drove to Leeward of her Deſtination, put into Port-a-Spaniard, in the Iſland of Trinidada, where the Captain went on Shore, and obtained Permiſſion from the Governor, to Wood, Water, and load with Fuſtick. About the twentieth of June laſt, three Spaniards, who had dined with the Maſter the Day before, took the Advantage of his Abſence with his Boat and three Men, and accompanied by eight Indians in a Petiaguer, went to the Schooner, drove the unſuſpicious, defenceleſs Engliſhmen, ſix in Number, down the Hold, cut her Cable, and were making off, when a St. Thomas Sloop of Force, at Anchor at a ſmall Diſtance, perceiving this treacherous Tranſaction, immediately weighed, chaſed them, and, as ſoon as ſhe began to fire, the Spaniards and Indians jump'd into their Petiauger, quitted the Schooner, and row'd aſhore. Tho' the Sloop's Boat and ſix of her Hands were left behind, they thought fit to put to Sea with the Schooner, which had her own Men only and little Ballaſt on Board, where they kept Company 'till within View of the Granadas, when the Schooner being far to Leeward, they loſt Sight of her in bad Weather, and ſhe has not been heard of ſince. Capt. Knott, after his Veſſel was reſcued, ſaw and ſpoke to the very Fellows who had ſo baſely treated him, when they pretended to excuſe themſelves, by ſaying, that they did not hurt the Men, nor rifle the Schooner; kindly invited him to their Dwellings, offer'd him Cloaths, and deſired him to accept of their good Offices during his Stay among them; all which he prudently refuſed. He afterwards got to St. Thomas, where he met the Captain that had ſo timely ſuccour'd his Schooner, who gave him the above Particulars, and ſuppos'd that ſhe muſt have gone to Coracoa or Jamaica.

Laſt Wedneſday arrived here a Schooner from Tortola, with two Men in Irons, who were impriſoned there by Governor Purcell, for ſome piratical Proceedings on board the Sloop Nancy, William Shearer Maſter, laſt from the River Gambia, and are now confined here in order for their Trials. The eldeſt is Robert Douglaſs, Boatſwain, aged about thirty Years, who ſays he was born, and has a Family in Rhode Iſland; the other John Ellis, born in London, who ſeems to be nineteen Years old. 'Tis ſaid, that after the Sloop was run aſhore on Norman's Iſland, the then Commander found Means of ſelling Part of the Cargo for Caſh, and afterwards, with all the Crew, except theſe two Men, made the beſt of his Way, for St. Domingo; to the Governor of which Place Mr. Purcell has ſent a Diſpatch, demanding their Bodies, which, it is ſaid, he will readily comply with.---As thoſe who are apprehended, prevaricate much in their Story, and our Readers not fond of mere Conjectures in Affairs of ſo great Importance, we forbear to enlarge upon theſe iniquitous Practices, till it can be done with more Certainty.

By the New York Poſt there is Advice, that the Captains Miller, Levingſton and Shoals, are arriv'd there from London; but as he was detain'd by the Badneſs of the Weather on Tueſday, ſo that he did not get in here till between Nine and Ten this Morning, and is to ſet out again at Four in the Afternoon, we are oblig'd to defer our Engliſh Advices till next Week.

BOSTON, October 22.

Yeſterday arrived here a Schooner that was fitted out laſt Spring to diſcover a North-Weſt Paſſage; but we hear ſhe has not ſucceeded, having been obſtructed by the Ice, among which ſhe was about three or four Weeks.

Wedneſday laſt Capt. Dunn arrived here from St. Kitts, who on the 7th Inſtant, in Lat. 38 and a Half, met with moſt terrible Gales of Wind, and four Days after came up with a Sloop that had been overſet, with three Men on board in a diſtreſſed Condition, two of whom they with great Difficulty took from her Quarter, but the other being in the fore Part of the Wreck (ſo weak that he ſeemed almoſt dead) they could not by all their Attempts get to his Relief. She was bound from Rhode-Iſland to Surrinam, and had been out but ſix Days when ſhe met with this Misfortune. The Maſter's Name was Bowen, who with three of the Men had been waſhed overboard and drowned. The Mate, named Pearſon, and a young Man, named Otis, are thoſe brought in hither: They are both very weak, eſpecially the Mate, who is much bruiſed.

NEW-YORK, October 29.

We are informed by Capt. Forſyth, who arrived here in the Snow Travers, on Tueſday laſt, in eight Weeks from Briſtol, that on Sunday the 7th Inſtant, in Lat. 41, Lon. 43, he met with as terrible a Gale as ever he was in in his Life-time: His Veſſel was hove on her Beam Ends, and lay ſo a conſiderable Time, but after cutting away her Fore-top-maſt, ſhe righted again, without much Damage. Three Days after the Storm, Capt. Forſyth ſpoke with Capt. Hopkins, in a Snow belonging to Rhode-Iſland, bound for Surrinam, who in Lat. 39, Lon. 65, loſt 23 Horſes, and was otherwiſe much damaged in the ſame Storm; and ſaid, that on the 8th he ſaw the Quarter-rails of a large Ship floating along-ſide, but could diſcover nothing remarkable belonging to it. The ſame Day Capt. Forſyth ſpoke with Capt. Archer, in a Snow from Piſcataqua, bound for St. Kitts, who had received no Damage: He alſo on the 26th ult. ſpoke with the Dorſet-Galley, Capt. Gill, from Dublin for Philadelphia, with Servants; who had then been out 4 Weeks, all well.

Capt. Bradford, of Boſton, was arriv'd at Margate Road, from Jamaica, the 25th of Auguſt laſt.

Capt. Shoals ſpoke the Samuel and Judith, Capt. Griffiths, at Margate-road, as he came down the Channel; and informs us, that the Dover, Capt. Richards, and the Prince of Wales, Capt. Walton, were both to ſail, the former in ſix Days, and the latter in about three Weeks after him. On the 13th Inſtant, Capt. Shoals ſpoke with Capt. Malton, in a Snow from Rhode-Iſland for London, who had then been out four Days, and all well.

Captain Elijah Goff, of the Snow Hope, of London, who arrived here on Tueſday Night laſt, in 38 Days from Terra La Boradore, on this Continent, adviſes, that he was at the Head of Davis's Inlet, which was thought to have a Communication with Hudſon's Bay, and found it to terminate after 21 Leagues of a S. W. Courſe, in a large Ledge of Rocks; and going on Shore, found the Country to be entirely barren and unfruitful, not fit to produce any kind of Vegetables: As he was leaving the Inlet, Captain Swaine, who was fitted out by a Number of Gentlemen in Philadelphia, and this City, in Queſt of the much talk'd of North-Weſt Paſſage, arrived there, who informed him, that from the 17th of May to the 28th of July, he was ſurrounded entirely by Ice, and found it impoſſible to make any Diſcovery, and intended as ſoon as he had ſearched Davis's Inlet, to return home. Capt. Swaine ſpoke with a Daniſh Ship in Davis's Streights, the Maſter whereof reported, that he had uſed that Trade for 24 Years, and never met with ſuch a hard Winter before.

Moſt of the Veſſels that arrived here laſt Week, ſuffered more or leſs in the late Gale of Wind on the 7th Inſtant, and it ſeems to have extended as far to the Eaſtward as Halifax; for, by Capt. Livingſton, of the Snow Helena, who arrived here laſt Tueſday, from London, but laſt from that Port in 8 Days, we have the following Account: That on Sunday the 7th Inſtant, they had a ſevere Storm of Wind at S. E. accompanied by a heavy Shower of Rain, which continued all the Forenoon: About 12 a Clock the Wind veered about to the S. W. with Rain, and a ſtrong Gale of Wind; and between One and Two it ſhifted in an Inſtant to N. W. when it blew a meer Hurricane: It continued near Half an Hour, when two exceeding bright Rainbows were ſet in the N. E, all the Shipping in the Harbour dragged their Anchors, many ſmall Craft drove aſhore, and ſundry Veſſels at the Wharffs received conſiderable Damage; and it was thought if the Gale had continued Half an Hour longer, every Veſſel in the Harbour would have been drove aſhore. During the Time of the Storm, almoſt all the Trees on the Citadel-Hill were blown down, and ſeveral Houſes not inhabited, ſuffered the ſame Fate.

A few Days after the Storm, a Ship arrived there from Philadelphia, the Maſter of which reported, that he met with the ſame Gale, which obliged him to lay too under his bare Poles, not being able to ſet a Rag of Sail, and his Veſſel lay down in ſush a Manner, that one or two Streaks of her Deck was conſtantly under Water, and expected to founder every Moment.

It was alſo reported at Halifax, that three or four Veſſels were caſt away at Fort-Matune, to the Weſtward of that Port; alſo, that Quantities of Onions, Apples, &c. were drove aſhore to the Eaſtward; ſo that they daily expected to hear melancholy Accounts of more Damage done by the Storm.

Captain Vardil, in 25 Days from Surinham, left the following Northern-men at that Place: Captains Rhodes, Batty and Car, of Rhode Iſland; the two latter dead. Negas, Owen, Smith, Hill, Rhodes, Stafford and Green, of Providence, N. E. the three firſt ready to ſail, and the two latter dead. Fatherly, Stanney, Thompſon and Pierce, of Boſton; the two firſt dead. Stafford of Greenwich, ready to ſail.

Capt. Vardil informs us, that many Mates and Foremaſt Men are dead; that the Inhabitants die very faſt; and that it was never known to be ſo ſickly there before. In the Latitude of the Iſlands, on the 12th Inſtant, Capt. Vardil met with a very hard Gale, and imagines it muſt have reach'd them; and in Lat. 34, he ſpoke with a Sloop from Boſton bound for New-Providence, lying too in a South-Eaſter.

November 15, 1753. NUMB. 1299.

The PENNSYLVANIA GAZETTE.

Containing the Freſheſt Advices, Foreign and Domeſtick.

e SPEECH of the Honourable JAMES DE LANCEY, Eſq; His Majeſty's Lieutenant Governor, and Commander in Chief, in and over the Province of New-York, and Territories depending thereon in America:

the Council and General Aſſembly of the ſaid Province, on Wedneſday, October 31, 1753.

Gentlemen of the Council, and General Aſſembly,

HIS moſt ſacred Majeſty having been graciouſly pleaſed, by his Royal Commiſſion, to appoint me Lieutenant Governor of this Province, the Government thereof is devolved upon me by the Death of his late Excellency Sir DANVERS OSBORN, Baronet.

As he was a Gentleman of Birth, of liberal Edu-tion, and diſtinguiſhed Character, we had well-grounded Expec-tions of being a happy People under his Adminiſtration, and ve therefore juſt Reaſon to regret his Death, and lament it as ublic Loſs.

You will perceive, by the Thirty-ninth Article of his Majeſty's Inſtructions to Sir Danvers Oſborne (Copies of which I ſhall herewith deliver you) how highly His Majeſty is diſpleaſed at the eglect of, and Contempt ſhewn to, his Royal Commiſſion and nſtructions, by your paſſing Laws of ſo extraordinary a Nature, d by ſuch your unwarrantable Proceedings particularly ſet forth this Inſtruction: Hence alſo his Majeſty's Royal Pleaſure as theſe Matters will appear, and what he expects from you. On s Head, I muſt obſerve to you, that by our excellent Conſtitu-n, the executive Power is lodged in the Crown; that all Go-rnment is founded on a Confidence that every Perſon will diſ-arge the Duty of his Station; and if there ſhould be any Abuſe Power, that the legal and regular Courſe is to make Application his Majeſty, who having a paternal Tenderneſs for all his Sub-cts, is always ready to hear and redreſs their Grievances.

Gentlemen of the General Aſſembly,

I MUST earneſtly preſs it upon you, that in preparing your Bills r the Support of Government, and other public Services, you y a due Regard to his Majeſty's Pleaſure, ſignified in his Inſtruc-ons; and frame them in ſuch a Manner, as when laid before me r my Aſſent, I may give it conſiſtent with my Duty to his Ma-ſty.

THE Proviſion lately made, for repairing his Majeſty's Fort d Copſy Battery, will, from the great Damage done to the latter the late Storm, fall very ſhort of anſwering thoſe Purpoſes: muſt therefore recommend to you, to make further Proviſion for is End. And alſo for compleating the Repairs of the Trading-ouſe at Oſwego: I need not mention to you the Importance of at Place: You will ſee by the Copy of the Letter and Account om the commanding Officer at that Poſt, what Repairs have been ade, and what is ſtill neceſſary to be done.

Gentlemen of the Council, and General Aſſembly,

AMONG the public Papers delivered to me, I find a Letter from Col. Johnſon, with an Account of his Proceedings in his late Ne-ciations with the Five Nations, and other Indians, on the Fron-ers, Copies of which ſhall be laid before you. The preſerving oſe Indians in their Fidelity, and drawing others to ſettle among m, is of ſuch Conſequence to his Majeſty's Service, and the fety of this and the other Northern Colonies, that it requires at l Times the greateſt Attention.

THE Method now practiſed by the Law for letting to farm the xciſe on Strong Liquors, is complained of as burthenſome: I re-mmend it to you, to put it on ſuch a Footing as will remedy that rievance.

I MUST alſo recommend to you, the paſſing a Bill for regulating e Militia, that the People may be trained to the Uſe of Arms, d prepared for their Defence on any Emergency.

THE good Effects which have ariſen from the Act made to pre-nt the Exportation of unmerchantable Flour, and the falſe taring f Bread and Flour Caſks, and the Reputation the Manufacture of lour has gained abroad under the preſent Regulations; are ſtrong rguments to induce you, to fall upon ſome effectual Means to pre-nt the Frauds which are committed in Beef, Pork, and other ommodities.

Gentlemen,

MY Inclination and Intereſt lead me to ſtudy and purſue the elfare of this Country: You cannot therefore doubt of my earful Concurrence with you, in ſuch Meaſures as will promote at End; and you may be aſſured, I will readily give my Aſſent any Bills that have his Majeſty's Service, and the Proſperity of e Province, for their Object. THE univerſal Joy which diffuſed itſelf throughout this City, upon the Arrival of Sir DANVERS OSBORN, Baronet, our late Governor, and the great Sorrow which ſoon ſucceeded d appeared in the Countenance of every one, upon the News of s ſudden and unexpected Death, were ſufficient Demonſtrations the high Expectations we all had of being happy under his Ad-iniſtration; and therefore we humbly beg Leave, on ſo affecting Occaſion, to condole the Loſs of that worthy Gentleman; and the ſame Time, we muſt expreſs our grateful Sentiments of his ſt ſacred Majeſty's Goodneſs to us, in having provided for a Suc-ſſion in the Adminiſtration, by commiſſionating your Honour to Lieutenant Governor.

It is with Pleaſure we reflect on your Honour's Abilities for vernment, and your great Skill and Knowledge in the Laws Conſtitution of Great-Britain in General, and long Experience the Affairs of this Province, the Place of your Nativity in par-ular.

May it pleaſe your Honour,

THE Rector and Inhabitants of the City of New-York, in Communion of the Church of England, as by Law eſtabliſhed, deeply affected with the great Loſs this Province has ſuſtained by the ſudden Death of his late Excellency Sir Danvers Oſborn, Baronet, whoſe eminent Abilities and good Diſpoſition, to promote the public Welfare, had raiſed our moſt ſanguine Hopes of ſeeing him the happy Inſtrument, in the Hand of Providence, of many Bleſſings both to Church and State; do humbly beg Leave to offer our moſt hearty Condolance on this melancholy Event.

But at the ſame Time it would be highly ungrateful not to expreſs the juſt Senſe we have of his Majeſty's paternal Care of us his Subjects in this diſtant Colony, by providing againſt ſuch an Emergency, by the Appointment of a Gentleman of known Wiſdom, Integrity and Honour, thoroughly acquainted with our Conſtitution, and bound by the ſtrongeſt Ties of Intereſt, as well as Inclination, to preſerve it inviolable, to ſucceed in the Adminiſtration.

As we ſincerely congratulate your Honour on your Advancement to this exalted Station, ſo we beg Leave to aſſure you, of our beſt Endeavours to render your Diſcharge thereof, eaſy to yourſelf, and happy to the Province: And truſt we ſhall always by your kind Favour and Countenance, peaceably enjoy the Rights and Privileges of our Church.

That Almighty God may always direct your Adminiſtration to his own Glory, and the public Weal, and confer upon your Honour, your Lady, and Family, every deſirable Bleſſing here, and eternal Happineſs hereafter, is the hearty Prayer of,

Your Honour's moſt obedient,
And moſt humble Servants.

His HONOUR'S Anſwer.

To the honourable JAMES DE LANCEY, Eſq; His Majeſty's Lieutenant Governor, and Commander in Chief, in and over the Province of New-York, and Territories depending thereon in America:

The humble ADDRESS of the Miniſters, Elders and Deacons, of the Reform'd Proteſtant Dutch Churches of the City of New-York, for themſelves, and in Behalf of their Congregations.

May it pleaſe your Honour,

WE the Miniſters, Elders and Deacons of the Reformed Proteſtant Dutch Churches of this City, do beg Leave to expreſs our tender Sympathy, in the general Grief of this Province, on Account of the ſudden Death of his late Excellency Sir Danvers Oſborn, Baronet, whoſe amiable Character inſpired univerſal Joy, in Proſpect of thoſe many Bleſſings we had Reaſon to expect, in Conſequence of a juſt, equitable and mild Adminiſtration.

Permit us, SIR, to comfort ourſelves under this Diſappointment, by promiſing ourſelves equal Advantage under your Government. This, your Honour's excellent Talents, and approved Fidelity, in the Diſcharge of the high Truſts for many Yeare paſt repoſed in you by his Sacred Majeſty, as well as the Love you bear to your Country, gives us the ſtrongeſt Grounds to hope.

Your Honour's Moſt Dutiful and Obedient

Humble Servants.

To which his Honour gave the following ANSWER.

I Sympathize with you in the general Grief occaſioned by the Death of his late Excellency Sir Danvers Oſborn, from whoſe amiable Character, what Bleſſings had we not Reaſon to expect! I thank you for this affectionate Addreſs upon my Promotion to the Government. Your Expreſſions of Duty and Loyalty to our moſt gracious Sovereign, are ſuch as become the Reformed Proteſtant Dutch Churches, and entitle you to my Favour. You may be aſſured I will protect you in the quiet Enjoyment of the Rights and Privileges granted to your Church.

LONDON, Auguſt 14.

THEY write from Norwich in Cheſhire, that the following uncommon Affair happened there, and may be depended on for Truth. A Young Lady genteelly dreſſed, came on Horſeback to the old Red Lion Inn there, without any Attendants, and immediately aſked the Landlady if ſhe could recommend a clever young Fellow to her for a Huſband, that if his Character was good, ſhe had no Objections to his Occupation. The Landlady, although greatly aſtoniſh'd at ſo uncommon a Queſtion, after a little Heſitation replied, there was a briſk young Fellow in the Neighbourhood, a Journeyman Barber, who, no Doubt, would be glad of the Honour. The Lady agreed he ſhould be ſent for, who in a ſhort Time appeared, when the Queſtion was aſked him, would he marry the Lady or not? But his Anſwer not being categorical, an Hour's Time was given him to come to a final Reſolution; but that Time being elapſed, and no Barber appearing, the Lady, who it ſeems was a little impatient for a Huſband, and reſolved to be married that Day, had once more Recourſe to the Aid of her Landlady, who ſent for a Linnendraper's Apprentice; and being interrogated to the ſame Purpoſe, he was bold enough to comply with her Requeſt, and immediately ſet out for Budworth, and were that Morning married there. Scarce was the Marriage Ceremony performed at Budworth, when two Gentlemen and three Livery Servants put up at the ſame Inn at Norwich, in Queſt of the Fugitive Lady, but great was their Mortification at the Recital of the above Particulars. They mounted their Horſes directly, and rode full ſpeed to Budworth, where they came Time enough to perceive their Expedition rendered abortive, by the Conſummation of the late Marriage. It is ſaid the young Lady is entitled to 800*l. a Year, independent of her Father, who would have forced her into a Marriage with a rich old decrepit Miſer, which induced her to take this Method of avoiding ſo deteſtable an Union.*

Auguſt 25. Some Letters from Dublin report, that an act will be propoſed in the Parliament of that Kingdom, for a Bounty on the Exportation of Corn to foreign Parts, in order the better to encourage the Culture of Land in Ireland.

It is ſaid that our Court and that of Spain, have agreed to adhere to the Regulations made by former Treaties, in Relation to Commerce; and in Conſequence whereof, the Proprietors of the Engliſh Ships which have been taken by the Spaniſh Guarda Coſtas, ſince the Peace, and whoſe Seizures have been declared illicit, are to ſend to the Governor of the Havannah, a Note of the Sum, which they claim by way of Indemnity, which that Governor has Orders to pay to the Perſons who ſhall be legally appointed to receive the ſame.

September 1. The Rains which have lately fallen in Spain, have not reſtored the Country to its uſual Fertility: Miſery and Diſtreſs, through Scarcity of Proviſions, prevail in many Parts of the Kingdom; and even in Madrid, the Neceſſaries of Life are double their ordinary Value.--- It is ſaid that the Men of War, deſtined to reinforce the Spaniſh Guarda-Coſtas in the Weſt-Indies, will be ready to put to Sea in a Fortnight at fartheſt.

We are well informed that the Parliament will ſit for the Diſpatch of Buſineſs the 20*th of November next, and be diſſolved very early in the Spring, there being ſome Things neceſſary to be done before its Diſſolution.*

The Fleet of Obſervation will conſiſt of two of ſixty Guns, three of fifty, two of forty, and one of twenty, beſides two Sloops of ſixteen, with four Tenders.

The Society of the Free Britiſh Fiſhery have received Accounts from their Superintendant, of the great Succeſs in their Fiſhery, many thouſand Barrels having been ſent to Hamburgh.

We hear that ten Ships are already taken up for the Greenland-Fiſhery, for the Service of the enſuing Year.

Some Days ago arrived Diſpatches of Importance from Mr. Keen, the Britiſh Miniſter at the Court of Madrid, in Relation to the Diſagreement between the Guarda-Coſtas in the Bays of Campeachy and Honduras, and our Dealers in Logwood in the Weſt-Indies, which, however, was like to be ſoon brought to an Accommodation.

September 4. It muſt afford the greateſt Satisfaction to every Body to obſerve the Succeſs our Greenland Ships have had this Year; and though a great many were employ'd, not one of them loſt. A few Years ſince there was not a ſingle Ship from Britain employed upon that Fiſhing, notwithſtannding they were in a Manner the firſt Diſcoverers of the Place, and the Advantages of it. It is true, the whole Trade was once carried on by an excluſive Company in England for a conſiderable Time, but they were beat out of it by the Dutch, and have continued ſo till the late Act of Parliament was paſſed for reviving it, the happy Effects of which are very viſible. During eighty Years, in which the Dutch were unrivalled in this Branch of Commerce, they cleared upwards of eight Millions Sterling, not to mention the innumerable other Advantages accruing from it. Since we have again come in for a Share in this Trade, to render it more beneficial, it is the Opinion of ſeveral judicious Perſons that a Fort ſhould be erected, and a Port opened in the Orkneys, where we might have all Kinds of neceſſary Utenſils always ready; there we could make more and better Oil, from the ſame Quantity of Fiſh, than any of our Neighbours; it would alſo give us an Opportunity of viſiting the Coaſt of Greenland earlier, and remaining there later than other People.

We hear that the Princeſs Dowager of Wales has purchaſed the Lace for which the Antigallicans gave the Premiums. A moſt noble Example of her Highneſs, to encourage Britiſh Art and Induſtry, in Oppoſition to the gaudy Tinſel of the French Manufactory!

We hear ſeveral rich and wealthy Jews are determined to petition the Houſe of Commons for the Repeal of the late Naturalization Act, finding it ſo generally diſagreeable to the Engliſh Nation, that their future quiet Reſidence among us, depends on their being in the ſame State they were in before the glorious Act of 1753.

Laſt Friday Night the Mate of a Ship went into one of the Bawdy-Houſes in Farthing-Fields, near Shadwell, where he was cut and wounded in ſo terrible a Manner, that he died about Two o' Clock on Sunday Morning; and a Man that was with him is cut in ſuch a Manner, that 'tis thought he will loſe one of his Hands. On Sunday Evening, between Eight and Nine o' Clock, about 50 Sailors went in a Poſſe to the [illegible] Place, and Part of them enter'd every Houſe in the Row, which conſiſts of about ten very notorious Bawdy-Houſes: when they immediately broke the Frames of the Windows, and demoliſhed the Beds, Tables, Chairs, and what other moveables they could find, and threw them out of the Windows, which the remaining Part of the Sailors collected together in a Heap, and made a very large Bonfire. Three or four of the Ladies, who appeared to be the beſt cloathed, they brought to the Bonfire, where they ſtripped off all their Cloaths, which they threw into the Fire, and obliged the Ladies to walk naked round it, and then ſuffered them to go about their Buſineſs in that Condition. After the Fire was out, the Sailors went off in a very peaceable Manner.

Charles-Town, South Carolina, September 3.

By the laſt Veſſels from Providence, we have Advice, that the French have lately actually been at Turk's-Iſland, the Caicos's, Heneago, Maguana, and ſome other ſmall Iſlands in the Wind-ward Paſſage, with a Ship of thirty-ſix Guns, one Sloop of ſixteen, and two of twelve; which they keep conſtantly cruizing from Hiſpaniola to and among thoſe Iſlands: That they talk of ſettling the Caicos's, Heneago, and Maguana, and of running out the Weſtern Half of Crooked-Iſland, for the ſame Purpoſe; and alſo for erecting Light-houſes on two Keys at Heneago and one of the Caicos's, near which Places many Veſſels have been loſt for want of them: And that they had loaded and ſent away a Sloop to Cape-Francois, with ſome of the Brazilleto that had been cut by the Providence People on thoſe Iſlands, and burnt the reſt.--- By the French taking Poſſeſſion of theſe Iſlands, our Trade with Jamaica muſt be rendered very precarious, as thereby they obtain the Command of the Windward Paſſage. The Conſequences in Time of War, we leave to better Judges, and to Politicians.

October 15. On Friday laſt the Sloop Sally (a coaſting Veſſel) Matthew Santus Maſter, from New-York, put in here for Proviſions, &c. She was bound for Egg-Harbour, with only the Capt. and one Man more on board; but meeting with a very hard Gale of Wind, to which the Sloop could not carry Sail, ſhe was blown off the Coaſt, and had been out fourteen Days.

October 22. Capt. Elmes, who arrived here laſt Monday from London, met with a terrible Hurricane on the ſixth Inſtant, about 120 Leagues to the Eaſtward, in Lat. 31. 30. Long. 70, which began about 6 o'Clock in the Morning, and continued 'till 4 in the Afternoon; in which his Ship lay 7 Hours on her Beam Ends, had part of her Stern and dead Lights beat in, her Rails and Binacle broke, ſhipp'd many Seas, had her Cargo turn'd topſy-turvey, and received other Damage. Capt. Edmonds from London, Capt. Watſon from Leith, and Capt. Hinſon from Bermuda, all felt the ſame Hurricane, but received no Damage.

We hear from Georgia, that WILLIAM STEPHENS, Eſq; lately died there, in the 83d Year of his Age (an Age to which few arrive in that Climate) who for many Years had made a conſiderable Figure in the polite World; had ſat twenty-ſix Years in the Britiſh Houſe of Commons, and to his great Honour, in every Change, behaved with the greateſt Steadineſs and Truth to his Conſtituents.

The Dover, Capt. Richards, is arriv'd at New-York in 7 Weeks from London; but the Poſt not getting in till Nine this Morning, and going out again at Four in the Afternoon, we have only Time and Room for what follows.

London, Sept. 11. Notwithſtanding the Number of Whales caught this Year by our Greenland Ships hath been ſo large, all the Oil, excepting a very trifling Quantity, has been contracted for, and bought up for Exportation; and has been, and now is, ſhipping off, as faſt as the Blubber is boil'd. This is a plain Indication of the Importance of this Branch of Trade to Great-Britain; and how highly it deſerves the Encouragement that has been given to it by the Legiſlature, as it enables our Merchants not only to employ a great Number of our poor Mechanicks as well as Seamen, but likewiſe contributes greatly to the Increaſe of our Navigation.

Sept. 12. By a private Letter from Paris, we are informed, that the Court of Verſailles is ſo irritated at the Proceedings and Behaviour of the Parliament of Rouen, that is thought ſome of them will be ſent to the Baſtile.

Several eminent Divines, we hear, have lately with great Elocution and Strength of Argument, endeavoured from the Pulpit, to appeaſe the popular Clamour againſt the Naturalization of the Jews, by ſhewing it to be a judicious Step taken by the Miniſtry, in a religious as well as a political View.

Sept. 15. We hear that M. Longueville, who was Ambaſſador from his Daniſh Majeſty to the Emperor of Morrocco, was, on his Arrival at Denmark, immediately put under Arreſt.

We hear that 1000 Men will be ſent to the Eaſt-Indies to protect the Trade.

We have Advice that there is an extraordinary great Take of Herrings on the Eaſt Coaſt of Fife, in Scotland; particularly that no leſs than 180,000 were caught on the 24th paſt, 50,000 on the 25th, and the ſame Number on the 27th; and that they ſtill continue to be ſucceſsful. The like Account was from Dunbar.

Edinburgh, Sept. 7. We are inform'd the 13th Inſtant, at three in the Afternoon, is fix'd for laying the Foundation of the new Exchange here, and that on this Occaſion there is to be a Proceſſion of the Free Maſons, who are to come from different Parts of the Kingdom to attend their Grand Maſter, who is to lay the firſt Stone, as we are aſſur'd, with a good deal of Ceremony, in Preſence of the Magiſtrates in their Robes, and ſuch of the Directors as are in Town. 'Tis ſaid Gallaries are to be fitted up for the Ladies and Gentlemen.

PHILADELPHIA, November 15.

Sunday laſt arriv'd here the Schooner Argo, Captain Charles Swaine, who ſail'd from this Port laſt Spring on the Diſcovery of a North-weſt Paſſage. She fell in with the Ice off of Farewell; left the Eaſtern Ice, and fell in with the Weſtern Ice in Lat. 58. and cruiz'd to the Northward to Lat. 63. to clear it, but could not, it then extending to the Eaſtward. On her Return to the Southward, ſhe met with two Daniſh Ships bound to Ball River and Diſco up Davis's Straits, who had been in the Ice fourteen Days off Farewell, and had then ſtood to Weſtward, and aſſured the Commander that the Ice was faſt to the Shore all above Hudſon's Straits to the Diſtance of 40 Leagues out, and that there had not been ſuch a ſevere Winter as the laſt theſe 24 Years that they had uſed that Trade; they had been 9 Weeks from Copenhagen. The Argo finding ſhe could not get round the Ice, preſs'd thro' it, and got into the Straits Mouth the 26th of June, and made the Iſland Reſolution, but was forc'd out by vaſt Quantities of driving Ice, and got into a clear Sea the firſt of July. On the 14th, cruiſing the Ice for an Opening to get in again, ſhe met 4 Sail of Hudſon's Bay Ships, endeavouring to get in, and continued with them till the 19th, when they parted in thick Weather in Lat. 62 and a Half; which thick Weather continued to the 7th of Auguſt; the Hudſon's Bay-men ſuppoſed themſelves 40 Leagues from the weſtern Land. The Argo ran down the Ice from 63 to 57, 30. and, after repeated Attempts to enter the Straits in vain, as the Seaſon for Diſcovery on the Weſtern Side of the Bay was over, ſhe went on the Labrador Coaſt, and diſcover'd it perfectly from 56 to 55, finding no leſs than 6 Inlets, to the Heads of all which they went, and of which we hear they have made a very good Chart, and have a better Account of the Country, its Soil, Produce, &c. than has hitherto been publiſhed. The Captain ſays 'tis much like Norway; and that there is no Communication with Hudſon's Bay thro' Labrador where one has been heretofore imagined, a high Ridge of mountains running North and South about 50 Leagues within the Coaſt. In one of the Harbours they found a deſerted Wooden Houſe with a Brick Chimney, which had been built by ſome Engliſh, as appear'd by ſundry Things they left behind; and afterwards in another Harbour they met with Capt. Goff in a Snow from London, who inform'd, that the ſame Snow had been there laſt Year, and landed ſome of the Moravian Brethren, who had built that Houſe: But the Natives having decoy'd the then Captain of the Snow, and 5 or 6 of his Hands in their Boat round a Point of Land at a Diſtance from the Snow, under Pretence of Trade, and carry'd them all off (they having gone imprudently without Arms) the Snow, after waiting 16 Days without hearing of them, went home, and was oblig'd to take away the Moravians to help to work the Veſſel. Part of her Buſineſs this Year was to enquire after thoſe Men. Captain Swaine diſcover'd a fine Fiſhing Bank, which lies but 6 Leagues off the Coaſt, and extends from Lat. 57, to 54, ſuppoſed to be the ſame hinted at in Capt. Davis's ſecond Voyage. No bad Accident happen'd to the Veſſel, and the Men kept in perfect Health during the whole Voyage, and return'd all well.

The ſame Day two of the Shawana Indians, who had been taken and impriſoned in South-Carolina, arrived here in Capt. Read, being permitted to go home by that Government, to negotiate the Diſcharge of ſome Carolina Indians, who, at preſent, are Priſoners among the Northern Tribes.---And by Capt. Stiles, who left Charles-Town ſince Capt. Read, we learn, that the remaining Shawanas, who were to have been detain'd in Priſon till thoſe Carolina Indians ſhould be ſent home, found Means to break Goal, and have made their Eſcape.

Capt. Read met with a violent Gale of Wind at S. S. E. on the 27th ult. in Lat. 34. 50. which had like to have drove him aſhore on Cape Hatteras Shoals. And in Lat. 37. the Tueſday following, had a ſevere Storm at N. W. which ſhifted to N. E. and ſo round to S. and blew exceſſively for 14 Hours. He ſaw a Snow lying to in it under her bare Poles, which afterwards ſtood away to the Eaſt-ward.

Capt. Stiles had the ſame Storm off of the Capes of Virginia, but receiv'd no Damage.

Capt. Campbell, from North-Carolina, alſo met with it off the Capes of Virginia, but ſuffer'd no conſiderable Loſs. He ſaw, after the Gale, a Ship or Snow diſmaſted off of Sinepuxent.

From Charles-Town, in South-Carolina, there is Advice, that three Men of War are ordered to diſpoſſeſs the French of the Salt-Iſlands, &c. in the Windward Paſſage. Alſo, that the Sloop Fanny, Capt. Robeſon, is ſafe arrived there from this Place.

Capt. Flower is ſafe arriv'd in North-Carolina from this Port.

By Capt. Eccles, from Santa Cruz, we are informed, that on the 29th and 30th of September, they had a terrible Gale of Wind there, which laſted 24 Hours, during which two Veſſels foundered at their Anchors; and three more went out to Sea, one of which got aſhore on Porto Rico, and was loſt; the other two not heard of when he came away. That at St. Domingo moſt of the Veſſels put out to Sea, ſome of which had got ſafe in there. That at Statia all the Shipping got to Sea, but one that was loſt. And that a Veſſel had arrived there from Antigua, by which there was Advice, that the Shipping had not ſuffered there; but that they had heard of a great deal of Damage among the French Iſlands. Capt. Eccles likewiſe informs us, that Capt. Vernon was to ſail ſoon for Boſton: That a New-York Sloop arrived there the Day he ſailed: And that on his Paſſage, on the 30th of October, in Lat. 36 30, he had a ſevere Storm at E. N. E. which laid him on his Beam-Ends for 12 Hours, and his Ballaſt ſhifted; but the Wind afterwards veer'd to S. W. when the Veſſel righted, and the Ballaſt ſhifted to the other Side.

Capt. Coxe, from Anguilla, met with the ſame Storm off of our Capes, which ſplit his Sails to Pieces, and obliged him to ſcud before it under his bare Poles.

And Capt. Swaine loſt his Boltſprit in it, the Day after he left Boſton.

By Capt. Gill from Dublin, there is Advice, that the Brigantine Alexander, Capt. Betaugh, was ready to ſail for this Port; ſo that ſhe may be daily expected.

Capt. Sage, mentioned in our laſt to be aſhore at the Capes, is got off, and come up to Town.

We hear that the Ship Beulah, Capt. Ritchie, for London, will certainly ſail the 27th Inſtant.

Yeſterday we had a hard Gale of Wind at Eaſt, attended with a great deal of Rain, when the Tide flow'd higher by ſeveral Inches than it has done for ſome Years; it got over all our Wharffs, and into moſt of the Stores on them; ſo that we are afraid there muſt have been conſiderable Damage done.

Thomas Brown, mentioned in laſt Week's Paper as being concern'd in the Robbery of Mr. Hanly's Houſe, was on Monday laſt carried to Cheſter, in order to ſtand Trial, which will come on the 26th Inſt. — The Trial of a Perſo [illegible] for burning a Barn, will come on at the ſame Court.

The Ship London, Capt. Shirley, for London, is fallen down.

Our Readers are cautioned to beware of counterfeit Engliſh Halfpence, great Quantities of which we underſtand are lately imported. They are of all Kings and Years from King WILLIAM downwards; but beſides being of baſe Metal, they are much lighter than the true Ones. They may be known by their Colour, Thinneſs, and Roughneſs, occaſioned by their being caſt in Sand. 'Tis ſaid that above Forty Thouſand Pounds Sterling in ſuch Halfpence, have been lately made in England; but their Currency being now ſtopt at home, ſome evil-minded Perſons are buying them up to ſend to the Plantations. The other Provinces are already on their Guard, and 'tis hoped our People will likewiſe be too prudent to give them a Currency; ſince if they can be paſſed here, our Silver and Gold, to an equal Value, will be carried off in Exchange for them, to the Ruin of the poorer Sort, in whoſe Hands they muſt at laſt ſink; ſince all Merchants and knowing Dealers will abſolutely refuſe them.
